Mayor Greg Ballard Issues Veto and Line-Item Veto of Council Resolutions

INDIANAPOLIS - Indianapolis Mayor Greg Ballard today returned to the Clerk of the City-County Council Proposal Number 179, 2012 without his signature. This action signifies his veto of the measure. The Mayor vetoed this proposal, which sought to regulate hotel hiring practices.

Mayor Ballard also returned to the Clerk of the City-County Council Proposal 203, 2012 with his signature affixed but with certain items vetoed. This proposal dealt with a variety of fiscal appropriations. The vetoed items related to the appropriation of monies from the Office of the Mayor to the City-County Council.

A copy of the letter from Mayor Ballard to the Clerk of the City-County Council expressing the veto of Proposal 179 is attached here.
